- (3) Any person may possess such quantities of an illicit drug that has been lawfully prescribed or provided for the purpose of treating a medical condition to that person or person under his care.

PART 3 – INVESTIGATION, SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Division 1 – Powers of a police officer and a customs officer

15 Interception of communications

- (1) If a police officer, of the rank of Sergeant and above, suspects on reasonable grounds that a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit an offence under this Act. That officer may for the purpose of investigation:
 - (a) make a written application to the Resident Magistrate for the express authority to enter a place to covertly monitor and record, by any means, the conduct and communications including telecommunications, of the person; or
 - (b) if the circumstances are such that time does not allow for written application, may enter a place to covertly monitor and record, by any means, the conduct and communications, including telecommunications, of the persons or and send written report in this regard to the Resident Magistrate immediately thereafter.
- (2) Every application or report, as the case may be, must state:
 - (a) the facts relied upon to show reasonable grounds;
 - (b) a description of the manner by which it is proposed to monitor the person or how the person was monitored;
 - (c) the name and address of the suspects if known and, if not known, then the premises, or place or device where it is intended to monitor the person, or where it was used to monitor;
 - (d) the identity of any person who may be required by the court to provide assistance for the purpose of giving effect to the monitoring order;
 - (e) the period for which the authority to monitor is required in case of application only.
- (3) An authority to monitor any person issued pursuant to paragraph (1)(a) may:
 - (a) authorize the police officer and any assistant to enter, by force if necessary, any place specified in the authority;
 - (b) identify any person who is required to provide assistance, free of any charge, for the purpose of giving effect to the monitoring order; and
 - (c) enable the police officer to obtain assistance from any person for the purpose of giving effect to the monitoring order
- (3A) The Resident Magistrate in giving authority to do any of the things in subsection (3) must be satisfied that in so doing the covert nature of the investigation will not be thereby prejudiced.

- (4) Any person who fails to provide such assistance as required under the terms of the monitoring authority is guilty of an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or fine not exceeding $10,000.00 or both.

16 Tracking devices

- (1) If either:
- (a) the Director of Police;
 - (b) the Director of Customs; or
 - (c) in the absence of the Director of Customs, a person authorized by the Minister; considers it necessary for the investigation of an offence under this Act he or she may authorize a police officer or a customs officer to place a tracking device in or on any place or goods.

- (2) If in order to place a tracking device in accordance with subsection (1) or retrieve a tracking device that has been so placed, the device cannot be placed or retrieved without making an entry into private property, the Resident Magistrate may issue a warrant authorising the entry into the premises, with or without only such force as is reasonably necessary, to recover the device.

17 Controlled delivery

- (1) If Director of Police or in his absence any officer authorized by the Minister suspects on reasonable grounds that any person has committed, is committing or is about to commit an offence under this Act, he may give written approval for:
- (a) a controlled delivery to be carried out; and
 - (b) specify persons to carry out or participate in the controlled delivery.
- (2) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the activities which may be undertaken in the course of and for the purposes of a controlled delivery include the following:
- (a) allowing any craft, vehicle or other means of transport or conveyance to enter, leave or transit through Nauru;
 - (b) allowing delivery of any:
 - (i) Illicit drugs, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment, in or on the craft, vehicle or other means of transport or conveyance,
 - (ii) Property suspected to be derived directly or indirectly from any offence against this Act or any other Act;
 - (c) leaving or replacing any portion of that illicit drugs or controlled chemical;

- (d) using such force as may be reasonable in the circumstances to enter and search the craft, vehicle or other means of transport, or other conveyance;
- (e) placing a tracking device on board the craft, vehicle or other means of transport, or other conveyance;
- (f) allowing any person who has possession, custody or control of the illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment to enter, leave or transit through Nauru.

18 Power to search vehicles

- (1) If a customs officer has reasonable cause to suspect that there is in or on any vehicle that is within any customs controlled area:
 - (a) any illicit drugs, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment;
or
 - (b) evidence relating to illicit drugs, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment; or
 - (c) any other evidence relating to an offence under this Act;

the customs officer may do all or any of the following:

- (d) stop and detain any vehicle for the purpose of searching that vehicle;
- (e) detain and search any person in that vehicle for such period as may be reasonable necessary for that purpose;
- (f) search any goods carried within the vehicle;

and must as soon as practicable thereafter send a report about his assessment to the Director of Police.

- (2) A police officer may give effect to subsections (1) if the vehicle is outside a customs controlled area.
- (3) Any person who fails to comply with an officer's request under this section commits an offence and may be arrested without warrant and is liable to term of imprisonment not exceeding two years and fine up to $20,000.00.

19 Power to search a person

- (1) If a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect that any person has committed an offence under this Act or is in possession of any illicit drug or controlled chemical, the officer may search and detain that person for the purpose of search.
- (2) The police officer may seize any evidence relating to the commission of an offence under this Act.

20 Internal concealment

- (1) If a police officer has reason to suspect that a person is transporting any illicit drug by concealing them inside that person's body, the officer may cause that person to be detained for the purpose of search.
- (2) A police officer detaining any person must:
 - (a) inform the detained person of the reason for the detention in words sufficient to give that person notice of the true reason for detention;
 - (b) provide the detained person with a written statement setting out person's right;
 - (c) arrange for the attendance of a medical practitioner;
 - (d) ask the detained person for their consent to undergo a medical examination; and
 - (e) if the detained person refuses to consent to a medical examination under paragraph (d), apply to the Resident Magistrate for an order authorizing the continued detention of the person.
- (3) A detention order issued pursuant to subsection (2) must:
 - (a) authorized the detention of that person for a period not exceeding 14 days;
 - (b) direct the detained person to submit to such medical examination as may reasonable be necessary to establish whether the person is internally concealing illicit drugs; and
 - (c) authorized any medical practitioner to carry out such examination and to provide such medical treatment as maybe reasonable and appropriate in the circumstances.
- (4) A police officer who obtains an order for the detention of any person pursuant to subsection (2) may apply to the Resident Magistrate for renewal of the detention order.
- (5) If a police officer is satisfied that there are no further grounds to detain the person, the officer must release that person from detention.
- (6) If a person is in a customs controlled area, a customs officer has the same power in respect of that person as a police officer under subsections (1) to (5) but must as soon as practicable after taking any action thereunder send a report of his or her actions to the Director of Police.
- (7) The Resident Magistrate must not make an order under this subsection unless he is satisfied that the police officer or customs officer has reason to suspect that the person concerned is transporting an illicit drug by concealment in his or her body.

- (8) A police officer may but need not be present at a medical examination carried out in accordance with this section but a male police officer must not be present at a medical examination of a female person.

Division 2 – Powers of a custom officer

21 Boarding, search and detention of a craft

- (1) Any customs officer may stop and board a craft:
- (a) at any place at any time while the craft is in Nauru;
 - (b) that is in the contiguous zone of the state;
 - (c) that is registered in Nauru where that craft is outside the territorial sea of any foreign country;
- if the officer has reason to suspect that the craft is carrying illicit drugs, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment.
- (2) A customs officer may, when necessary for the exercise of his or her functions, direct the craft to be taken to a suitable place in Nauru and detain it for the purpose of search.
- (3) On boarding a craft, a customs officer may search and detain the craft, anyone on it and anything on it including its cargo and undertake tests and to take samples of anything on the craft.
- (4) A customs officer may question any person on board the craft or require the production of any documents relating to the craft or anything on the craft and may copy any documents produced.
- (5) A customs officer may seize and detain anything found on the craft which appears to him or her to be evidence of an offence under this Act.
- (6) A customs officer boarding a craft, may remain on the craft for such time as he or she thinks necessary for the purpose of boarding and searching the craft.
- (7) Where a craft fails to stop at the request of a customs officer, it may be pursued into international waters and such action as is necessary may be undertaken to stop the craft.
- (8) The master or commander of the craft must provide any customs officer who remains on board the craft with proper and sufficient food and suitable accommodation and no charge may be levied.
- (9) For any of the purposes of this section, a customs officer may require the master, member of the crew or any person on board to take such action as may be directed by that customs officer.
- (10) The Custom Officer shall send a detailed report to the Director of Police for enabling him to charge the offender before the Court of Law.

- (11) A master, commander or any person who contravenes these provisions is guilty of an offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term up to 20 years imprisonment and a fine not exceeding $250,000 and also forfeiture of the craft.

22 Access to Customs controlled area

A Customs officer may refuse access to any person from:

- (a) a craft that has arrived in or is about to depart from Nauru; or
- (b) a Customs controlled area.

23 Questioning

- (1) A police officer outside Customs Area or a customs officer in Custom area may stop and question any person who:
- (a) has arrived in, or is intending to depart from Nauru as a passenger or crew member; or
 - (b) is the master or commander of a craft that has just arrived in, or is about to depart from Nauru; or
 - (c) is arriving in, or departing from or within any customs controlled area.
- (2) A person shall answer question put to him or her in pursuance of subsection (1).
- (3) A person who fails to answer any questions pursuant to subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to pay a fine not exceeding $10,000.
- (4) If a police officer or customs officer before or during the course of questioning a person under this section forms or should reasonably have been expected to have formed the opinion that the person may have committed an offence the police officer or customs officer must immediately cease questioning the person and inform the person that they are suspected of having committed an offence, that they are not obliged to make any further statement or provide any evidence if in so doing the person may incriminate himself or herself.

24 Search and examination of baggage

A customs officer may search and examine baggage, packages or other goods carried by a person or belonging to the person if he or she:

- (a) has arrived in, or is intending to depart from Nauru as a passenger or a crew member of a craft; or

- (b) is the master or commander of craft that has arrived in, or is about to depart from Nauru; or
- (c) is arriving in, departing from or within a customs controlled area;¹
- (d) And send a report to the Director of Police where detection of incriminating material is found during the search and examination of baggage in accordance with this section.

25 Searching person

- (1) Any customs officer who has reasonable cause to suspect that any person has committed an offence under this Act may stop, detain and search any person if that person:
 - (a) has arrived in, or is intending to depart from Nauru as a passenger or a crew member of a craft; or
 - (b) is the master or commander of a craft that has arrived in, or is about to depart from Nauru; or
 - (c) is arriving in, departing from or within a customs controlled area.
- (2) When conducting a search under this Act of a female person such search shall be conducted by a female customs officer or female police officer and a male person must not be present.
- (3) Any customs officer may seize any evidence relating to the commission of an offence against this Act and send a report to Director of Police in case of seizure of incriminating material

26 Arrest without warrant

Any customs officer who has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has committed an offence under this Act, may arrest the person without warrant and shall deliver the person into the custody of the police as soon as practicable.

27 Entry and search without warrant

A customs officer may, at any time and without a search warrant, enter and search any place subject to customs control.

¹ Section 14 of the Illicit Drugs Control (Amendment) Act 2008 provides for the amendment of s.24, by, among other things, "inserting after "customs controlled area"—

"and if anything is found during the search and examination that may reasonably lead the customs officer to believe that the thing is or may be, illegal or that an offence may have been committed, the customs officer must immediately send a report thereof to the Director of Police,".

Because of uncertainty as to the relationship of the proposed amendment to the existing text of the section, the amendment is not incorporated in this compilation.

28 Entry and search with warrant

- (1) If a customs officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that an offence against section 4 and 5 of this Act has been committed in a Customs area and that there is or on any place evidence relating to the commission of an offence against those provisions, the officer may make a declaration on oath to the effect, before a magistrate.
- (2) Upon the declaration made under subsection (1), the magistrate may issue a warrant authorizing the officer:
 - (a) to enter upon; and
 - (b) search the place, with such force as may be reasonably necessary, by day or night; and
 - (c) search and detain for the purpose of search:
 - (i) any person found at or in the place; or
 - (ii) any person whom the officer suspects is about to enter or leave the place; or
 - (iii) goods in the apparent control of any person at that place; and
 - (d) Seize, and preserve any evidence relating to the commission of an offence under section 4 and 5 of this Act; and
 - (e) The officer must as soon as practicable following the search and detention of a person:
 - (i) send a report together with any seized material; and
 - (ii) cause the detained person to be transported;
to the Director of Police for the purpose of being taken before a Magistrate and charged with an offence against this Act.

Division 3 – Warrants

29 Search warrants

- (1) If the Magistrate is satisfied, by information on oath, that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that there is in or on any place:
 - (a) an illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment; or
 - (b) any evidence relating to the commission of an offence under this Act; or
 - (c) any property derived from an offence under this Act;

the Magistrate may issue a warrant empowering a police officer at any time, or at such time as the Magistrate may specify in the warrant, to enter the place, search for any illicit drug or thing and if found, seize it.

- (2) a police officer who executes a warrant under subsection (1) may:
- (a) enter any place named or described in the warrant;
 - (b) search and detain for the purpose of search:
 - (i) any person found at or in the place; or
 - (ii) any person whom the officer suspects about to enter or leave the place; or
 - (iii) goods in the apparent control of the person;
 - (c) seize any:
 - (i) illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment; or
 - (ii) any evidence relating to the commission of an offence against this Act; or
 - (iv) any property derived from an offence under this Act.

30 Search and seizure without warrant in emergencies

- (1) A police officer may exercise any or the powers in section 29 without a warrant, if the grounds for obtaining a warrant under section 29 exist and the officer suspects on reasonable grounds, that:
- (a) it is necessary to do so in order to prevent the concealment, loss or destruction of anything connected with an offence under this Act; and
 - (b) the circumstances are of such seriousness and urgency as to require the immediate exercise of the power without the authority of a warrant issued under section 29.
- (2) Police officer acting pursuant to subsection (1) may:
- (a) search any person or the clothing that is being worn by, and goods in the apparent control of a person; or
 - (b) enter and search any place at or in which the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that anything connected with an offence is situated; or
 - (c) seize any evidence relating to the offence that the officer finds in the course of that search.
- (3) A police officer may, for the purpose of this section, detain any person the officer suspects on reasonable grounds is carrying without lawful authority anything connected with an offence under this Act.
- (4) A police officer may, for the purposes of this section, stop any vehicle or craft where the officer suspect on reasonable grounds that anything connected with an offence under this Act is upon or in the vehicle or craft.

Division 4 – Enforcement powers

31 Assistance and use of aids

In exercising any powers of monitoring, surveillance, inspection, examination, controlled delivery, boarding, entry or search conferred by this Act, a customs officer or a police officer may have with the officer and use such assistance and aids as the officer considers necessary.

32 Reasonable force

A police officer, customs officer or authorized officer may use such force as may be reasonable in the circumstances in the performance of his or her lawful duties under this Act.

33 Evidence of authority

A police officer, or a customs officer or an authorized officer must, if required, produce the officer's identification and authority in the exercise of any powers under this Act.

34 Protection of officers

A police officer, or a customs officer or an authorized officer are not liable in any civil or criminal proceedings for anything done in the purported performance of the officer's lawful duties pursuant to this Act, if the act was done believing in good faith and that there were reasonable grounds for doing so.

35 Offences against officers

A person who:

- (a) intentionally obstructs, assaults, intimidates, threatens or resists a police officer, a customs officer or an authorized officer in the performance of the officer's lawful duties pursuant to this Act; or
- (b) fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the lawful requirements of a police officer, a customs officer or an authorized officer in the performance of those functions; or
- (c) in purporting to give information required by a police officer, customs officer or an authorized officer in the performance of those functions:
 - (i) makes a statement he or she knows to be false in a material particular; or
 - (ii) recklessly makes a statement which is false in material

particular; or

(iii) intentionally fails to disclose any material particular;

commits an offence.

Penalty: (a) 3 years' imprisonment; and

(b) a fine not exceeding $30,000.

Note:

Under the Interpretation Act s.62(1) where a penalty is prescribed for an offence it shall mean that the offence shall be punishable by a penalty not exceeding the penalty and under.

36 Protection of informants and undercover officers

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), no witness in any proceedings under this Act is obliged:
- (a) to disclose the name or address of any informant or undercover police officer or Custom Officer who has given information with respect to an offence under this Act, or of any person who has assisted in detecting, investigating or otherwise assisting with respect to the due administration or enforcement of this Act; or
 - (b) to answer any question if the answer thereto would lead, or would tend to lead, to the discovery of the name, address or identity of such informant or undercover police officer, if the informant or person is not a witness in the proceedings.
- (2) If any record which is in evidence or liable to inspection in any proceedings contains an entry in which any such information or undercover police officer is named or described or which might lead to his or her discovery, the Magistrate must cause all such entries to be concealed from view or to be obliterated so far as may be necessary to protect the information or such person from discovery.
- (3) If in any proceedings before the Magistrate under this Act the Magistrate, after full enquiry into the case, is satisfied that:
- (a) an informer willfully made a material statement which he or she knew to be false or did not believe to be true; or
 - (b) in any other proceedings the Magistrate is of the opinion that justice cannot be fully done between the parties thereto without disclosure of the name of the informer or another person who assisted in any investigations or the proceedings under this Act;

the Magistrate may permit enquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer or person.

37 Authorised officers

- (1) The Director of Police or the Director of Customs as the case maybe, may authorise a suitably qualified and trained person who is not a police officer or a customs officer to perform or exercise any function or power that may be performed or exercised by a police officer or a customs officer.
- (2) The authorisation under subsection (1) must be made in writing including any writing in electronic form and must specify:
 - (a) the function or the power that may be performed or exercised by the authorised person; and
 - (b) the term of the authorisation, which shall be such period, not exceeding 3 years, as the Director thinks fit.
- (3) The Director of Police or the Director of Customs may renew any authorisation for such further period, not exceeding 3 years as deemed fit.
- (4) A person who is authorised under this section is taken to be a police officer or a customs officer for the purposes of this Act for the duration for the term of that person's authorisation.
- (5) The Director of Police or Director of Customs may revoke an authorisation given under this section for any of the following reason:
 - (a) incapacity;
 - (b) neglect of duty;
 - (c) misconduct;
 - (d) if the authorised person gives written notice to the Director that he or she wishes the authorisation to be revoked;
 - (e) in any other circumstances where in the opinion of the Director, the authorisation is no longer necessary.
- (6) If the person ceases to be an authorised person under this section, that person must surrender to the Director of Police or Customs as the case maybe, all articles and documents received by him or her in the relation to the authorisation.
- (7) The Director of Police or Customs, as the case maybe, may authorise any suitably qualified person from any other country to perform or exercise any function or power that may be performed or exercised by a police officer or customs officer under this Act.

Division 5 – Post seizure procedures

38 Disposal and storage of seized illicit drugs

- (1) If a scientific analysis of a sample of a seized substance indicates that it is an illicit drug or controlled chemical or controlled equipment, the seizing officer must forward a copy of the scientific analysis to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

- (2) If the Director of Public Prosecutions, in consultation with the Director of Police, is of the opinion that, although proceedings are likely to be brought against any person:
- (a) physical preservation of all the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment is not necessary for the purposes of any actual or contemplated proceedings under this Act; or
 - (b) the seized drug or controlled chemical may properly be used, in Nauru for medical or scientific purposes, or in small amounts for the training of personnel responsible or carrying out functions under this Act; or
 - (c) the seized drug or controlled chemical cannot be safely, securely or conveniently stored until the final determination of such proceedings;

the Director of Public Prosecutions in consultation with the Director of Police may authorise the disposal of any part of the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment or samples as they determine are not necessary to retain for the due administration of justice.

- (3) If the Director of Public Prosecutions in consultation with the Director of Police has authorised the disposal under subsection (2) in relation to a seizure and they are satisfied that:
- (a) any of the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment is illegal property liable to forfeiture under this Act; and
 - (b) the provisions of the section relating to the taking and analyses of samples have been complied with; and
 - (c) sufficient samples have been taken, analysed and preserved to enable all material questions relating to the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment to be properly determined in any actual or contemplated proceedings under this Act; and
 - (d) any suspect or accused person in relation to the seizure has had reasonable opportunity to have samples independently analysed at the person's expense;

the Director of Public Prosecutions in consultation with Director of Police may authorise the disposal of the illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment.

- (4) If, in relation to any seized illicit drug or controlled chemical or controlled equipment and after reasonable investigatory efforts, the Director of Public Prosecutions in consultation with the Director of Police are:

- (a) of the opinion that proceedings are not likely to be brought against any person for the reason only that no suspect has been identified or located; and
- (b) satisfied that sufficient samples have been taken, analysed and preserved to enable all material questions relating to the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment to be properly determined should any suspect be ultimately identified and proceedings be brought;

the Director of Public Prosecutions, in consultation with the Director of Police, may order the disposal of such part of the seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment or samples taken for analysis as he or she certifies to be not necessary to retain for the purposes of the due administration of justice.

- (5) An illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment subject to an authorisation under subsection (3) or (4) shall be disposed of only:
 - (a) by delivery to the Director of Health for use exclusively in meeting the lawful medical, scientific or training needs of Nauru; or
 - (b) by incineration, or such other safe means of destruction.
- (6) Subject to this section, in any prosecution for an offence under this Act or regulations, a certificate or report:
 - (a) purporting to be signed by the officer in charge of carrying out a disposal order made under subsection (3) or (4) and two witnesses to the disposal; and
 - (b) stating:
 - (i) that the illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment, the subject of an order, has been disposed of in accordance with the order; and
 - (ii) the identity and quantity of the illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment disposed of;

is admissible in evidence.

- (7) In the absence of evidence to the contrary, a certificate or report is admissible under subsection (6) as proof to the statements contained therein, without proof of the signature, expertise or official character of the person appearing to have signed it.

39 Collection and processing of evidence at seizure

- (1) The officer in charge at the seizure scene shall ensure that all material evidence is collected and processed, and in particular that any seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment is properly marked for identification, weighed counted, sampled, sealed, labelled and, until destroyed or otherwise disposed of in accordance with section 38, preserved for evidentiary purpose.

- (2) Where any illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment that has been seized pursuant to this Act was found in packages or containers of similar size and weight and bearing identical markings, and colour testing of the contents of a representative number of them yields similar results for each, the seizing officer shall cause all such packages or containers to be classified, serially numbered and separated into lots ready for weighing, counting, sampling, sealing and labeling.
- (3) Where it is physically possible to count and weigh the seizure as a complete entry, the seizing officer shall cause it to be counted and weighed. Where it is not physically possible to count and weigh the seizure as a complete entry, the seizing officer may estimate the gross and net weight as the case may be.
- (4) The seizing officer shall also prepare a report of the seizure as soon as practicable but no later than 24 hours after seizure which includes particulars of:
 - (a) the time, place and date of seizure;
 - (b) the identity of the seizing officer and all persons present,
 - (c) the circumstances in which seizure took place;
 - (d) a description of the vehicle, craft, place or person searched and the location where the illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment was found;
 - (e) a description of the illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment found;
 - (f) a description of the packaging, seals, and other identifying features;
 - (g) a description of quantity, volume and units and the measurement method employed;
 - (h) a description of any preliminary identification test used and results;
 - (i) all subsequent movements of the seized illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment;
 - (j) any other prescribed matter.
- (5) The officer in charge of an investigation following a seizure shall ensure that all items of evidentiary value are stored in appropriate conditions for the prevention of loss, theft or any other form of misappropriation, as well as accidental or accelerated deterioration.

40 Forfeiture

Every person convicted of an offence against this Act shall, in addition to any penalty imposed pursuant to this Act, forfeit to

Nauru, by virtue of such conviction, all goods, articles and moveable property if any, in respect to which the offence was committed and in the possession of such person.

PART 4 – EVIDENTIARY MATTERS

41 Presumption relating to possession of illicit drugs

If in the prosecution of a person for an offence under this Act or the regulations, it is proved that an illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment was found:

- (a) in the immediate vicinity of the accused; or
- (b) on any animal, vehicle, craft and that the accused was at the time on or in charge of, or that he or she accompanied, any such animal, vehicle or craft;

It is presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the accused was found in possession of the illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment.

42 Presumption relating to samples

If in any prosecution for an offence under this Act it is proved that a sample which was taken from any illicit drug or controlled chemical possesses particular properties, it shall be presumed, unless contrary is proved, that any such illicit drug or controlled chemical possesses the same properties.

43 Admissibility of official records

A copy of any record of a ministry, department, agency, instrumentality or other body established by or pursuant to a law of Nauru or of any statement containing information from the records kept by any such ministry, department, agency, instrumentality or other body, purporting to be certified by an official having custody of that document or those records, is admissible in evidence in any prosecution for an offence under this Act, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of the facts contained in the document, without proof of the signature or official character of the person purporting to have certified.

44 Proof of prohibited import or export of an illicit drug under foreign law

A certificate purporting to be issued by or on behalf of a foreign state to the effect that the import or export of an illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment is prohibited by the law of that state shall for the purpose of any proceedings under this Act, be prima facie evidence of the matters stated.

45 Analyst certificate

- (1) In any proceedings under this Act the production of a certificate purporting to be signed by a government analyst shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

- (2) A copy of the analyst certificate shall be served by or on behalf of the prosecutor on the defendant or that person's defence counsel at least 10 working days before the hearing at which the certificate is to be tendered as evidence and the defendant shall be informed in writing that the prosecutor does not propose to call the person who made the analysis as a witness.
- (3) The defendant shall give written notice to the prosecutor at least 3 working days before the hearing that he or she requires the person who made the analysis to be called by the prosecutor as a witness.
- (4) Cabinet may by regulation determine persons, agencies or corporations qualified and experienced in the analysis of illicit drugs, controlled chemicals or controlled equipment and whose certificates when duly signed in a prescribed manner by a prescribed or person shall be accepted by a court as proof as to the truth and accuracy of the statements therein unless shown to be false in a material aspect.
- (5) A person, agency or corporation determined under subsection (4) may be in any country.

46 Interfering with evidence

Any person who unlawfully interferes with, uses, takes or disposes of any seized illicit drug, controlled chemical or controlled equipment or any sample thereof, or who unlawfully interferes with, or falsifies the results of any analysis with the intention of interfering with the proper course of justice, commits an offence and is liable to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 10 years and fine not exceeding of $20,000.

PART 5 – MISCELLANEOUS

47 Investigative abilities of overseas law enforcement agencies

The Director Public Prosecutions of Nauru may authorise any person from a law enforcement agency of another state, to exercise and give effect to the relevant legal powers within Nauru for the purpose of the investigation of any offence under this Act.

48 Cabinet may issue licences to import dangerous drugs²

² Section 27 of the Illicit Drugs Control (Amendment) Act 2008 provides:

'Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Principal Act all licences for: the importation and disposal of dangerous drugs as described in the repealed Dangerous Drugs Act 1952-1968 or in the principal Act issued after the commencement of the principal Act and purporting to be issued under the said repealed Act, are deemed to have been validly issued in accordance with section 48 of the principal Act as amended by this Act.'

- (1) Cabinet on the recommendation of the Minister may grant licences to persons to import dangerous drugs, or one or more particular forms of dangerous drugs specified in the licence, subject to the following conditions and restrictions:
 - (a) The drugs shall be imported for medicinal purposes only; and
 - (b) a licence to import the drugs shall not be issued except to:
 - (i) a legally qualified medical practitioner; or
 - (ii) a person who proves to the satisfaction of the Minister that he is a fit and proper person to be allowed to import dangerous drugs or the particular form of dangerous drugs he seeks permission to import.
- (2) A licence issued under this section:
 - (a) shall be for a period of one year;
 - (b) may be renewed from time to time by the Cabinet for a like period;
 - (c) shall be in accordance with Form 1 or Form 2 in Schedule 4; and
 - (d) shall be signed by the Minister.
- (3) Before a licence is granted the applicant shall have:
 - (a) given security to the satisfaction of the Cabinet and the Minister that:
 - (i) all importations pursuant to the licence or a renewal thereof will be disposed of for medicinal purposes only; and
 - (ii) the applicant will record in a book kept by him or her for the purpose, particulars of the quantities imported and of how and to whom they have been disposed of or provided, and will at all times produce to the Minister or an officer thereunto authorised by the Minister the book so kept and the balance of the importations on hand at the time when the book is produced; and
 - (b) give an undertaking in writing that the applicant will be responsible for the making of reasonable enquiries as to the purpose and destination of dangerous drugs imported under the licence and subsequently sold with a view to being assured that the drugs are intended for medicinal purposes only.
- (4) Every holder of a licence under this Ordinance must advise the Minister of his or her intention to import dangerous drugs and shall state:
 - (a) the exact description and quantity of the drugs to be imported; and

- (b) the name and address of the firm in the exporting country from which the drugs are to be obtained.
- (5) The Minister may issue a certificate in accordance with Form 3 in Schedule 4 specifying the period within which the importation must be effected.

49 Provisions of Criminal Procedure Act 1972

In all other matters not provided for, the provisions of Criminal Procedure Act 1972, shall apply.

50 Repeal

The Dangerous Drugs Act 1952-1968 is hereby repealed.

51 Savings

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 50, every order of a court lawfully made, and every summon, warrant and other process of any court lawfully issued, in Nauru, in exercise of such Courts Criminal Jurisdiction before the commencement of this Act shall continue to have full force and effect as though the written law under which it was made or issued were still in force in Nauru.

52 Regulations

The Cabinet may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters necessary or convenient for giving effect to it.

This Schedule includes:

The following illicit drug, chemicals or controlled equipments, designated by their international non-proprietary names or the names used in international conventions in force;

Their isomer, unless specifically excepted, whenever the existence/of/such isomers is possible within the specific chemical/designation;

Their esters and ethers, unless specifically excepted, whenever/the/existence of such esters and ethers is possible;

Their salts, including the salts of esters ethers and isomers, /whenever the existence of such salts is possible;

Preparations of these illicit drug, controlled chemicals or controlled equipments, unless exempted by law.

(FROM SCHEDULE IV of the Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961)

Acetorphine	Beta-hydroxy-methyl-3-PEPAP fentanyl	Ketobemidone
Acetyl-alpha-methyl-fentanyl	Cannabis and cannabis resin	Methyl-3fentanyl
Alphacetylmenthadol	Desomorphine	Methl-3thio-fentanyl
Alpha-methylfentanyl	Etorphine	MPPP
Beta-hydroxyfentanyl	Heroin	Para-fluorofentanyl Thiofentanyl

(FROM SCHEDULE 1 of the Convention on Psychotropic Substances 1971)

Brolamphetainine	MDA	PMA
Cathinone	Mescaline	Psilocine, psilotsine
DET	Methcathinone	Psilocybine
DMA	Methyl-4 anuinorex	Rolicyclidine
DMHP	MMDA	STP, DOM
DMT	MDMA	Tenamphetamine
DOET	N-ethl MDA	Tenocyclidine
Eticyclidine	N-hydroxy MDA	Tetrahydrocannabinol
Etryptamine	Parahexyl	TMA
(+) - Lysergide

(FROM SCHEDULE 1 of the Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961)

Acetylmethadol	Ethylmethyl-thiambutene	Morphine
Alfentanil	Etonitazene	Normorphine
Allylprodine	Etoxeridine	Norpipanone
Alphameprodine	Fentanyl	Opium
Alphamethadol	Furethidine	Oxycodone
Alphamethylthio-fentanyl	Hydrocodone	Oxymorphone
Alphaprodine	Hydromorphenol	Pethidine
Anileridine	Hydromorphone	Pethidine intermediate A (4-cyano-1 methyl-4-phenyl-piperidine)
Benzethidine	Hydroxypethidine	Pethidine intermediate B (4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylic acid ethylester)
Benzylmorphine	Isomehtadone	Pethidine intermediate C (1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylic acid)
Betacetylmethadol	Levomethorphan	Phenadoxone
Betamerprodine	Levomoramide	Phenampramide
Bethamethadol	Levorphanol	Phenampramide
Betaprodine	Metazocine	Phenazocine
Bezimatrimide	Methadone	Phenomorphane
Clonitazene	Methadone intermediate (4-cyano-2-dimethyl-amino-4, 4-diphenyl butane)	Phenoperidine
Coca (leaf)	Mehtyldesorphine	Piminodine
Cocaine	Methyl dihydromorphine	Piritramide
Codoxime	Metopon	Proheptazine
Concentrate of poppy Straw	Moramide	Properidine
Dextromoramide	Morpheridine	Racemethorphan
Difenoxin	Morpheridine	Racemoramide
Dihydromorphine	Morphine methobromide and other pentavalent nitrogen morphine derivatives	Racemorphan
Dimepheptanol	Morphine-N-oxide	Sufentanil
Diapromide	Myrophine	Thebacon
Dimethylthiambutene	Nicomorphine	Thebaine
Dimenaxadol	Noracymethadol	Tilidine
Dioxaphetyl butyrate	Norlevorphanol	Trimeperidine
Diphenoxylate	Normethadone
Dipipanone
Drotebanol
Ecgonine, Its ester and derivatives

(FROM SCHEDULE II of the Convention of Narcotic Drugs, 1961)

Acetyldihydrocodeine	Ethylmorphine	Pholcodine
Codeine	Nicodicodine	Propiram
Dextropropoxyphene	Nicocodine
Dihydrocodeine	Norcodeine

(FROM SCHEDULE II of the Convention on Psychotropic Substances, 1971)

Amphetamine	Methamphetamine	Phenmetrazine
Dexamphetamine	Methamphetamine racemate	Secobarbital
Fenetylline	Methaqualone	Zipeprol
Levamphetamine	Methylphenidate
Mecloqualone	Phencyclidine

SCHEDULE III of the Convention on Psychotropic Substances, 1971

Amobarbital	Cathine	Pentazocine
Buprenorphine	Cyclobarbital	Pentobarbital
Butalbital	Glutethimide	Flunitrazepam
Allobarbital	Ethinamate	Methylprylon
Alprazolam	Ethyl loflazepate	Midazolam
Aminorex	Etilamphetamine	Nimetazepam
Amphedramone	Fencamfamin	Nimetazepam
Barbital	Fenproporex	Nitrazepam
Benzphetamine	Fludiazepam	Oxasepam
Bromazepam	Flurazepam	Oxazolam
Brotizolam	Halazepam	Pemoline
Butobarbital	Haloxazolam	Phendimetrazine
Camazepam	Ketazolam	Phenobarbital
Chlordiazepoxide	Lefetamine	Phentermine
Clobazam	Loprasolam	Pinasepam
Clonazepam	Lorazepam	Pipradol
Clorazepate	Lormetazepam	Prazepam
Clotiazepam	Mazindol	Pyrovalerone
Clozazolam	Medazepam	Secbutabarbital
Delorazepam	Mefenorex	Temazepam
Diazepam	Meprobamate	Tetrazepam
Estazolam	Mesocarb	Trazolam
Ethchlorvynol	Methylpheno-barbital	Vinylbital
